

Dear Patron of the Arts,

Mark your calendars for June 17th, when CenterArts will reveal a dazzling lineup featuring live music, captivating dance, riveting theater, family-friendly shows, side-splitting comedy, and much more. This is in addition to the luminaries already announced to grace our stages such as country sensation Elle King, the incomparable Scott Bradley's Postmodern Jukebox, and the acclaimed cellist Zlatomir Fung.

The magic of CenterArts extends beyond our evening performances. We are dedicated to enriching our community through transformative arts education initiatives. Each year, CenterArts hosts over 3,000 elementary school children, providing them with invaluable experiences they might not otherwise encounter – many stepping onto a college campus for the first time. Additionally, CenterArts hosts master classes and artist residencies that foster meaningful interactions between professional artists and Cal Poly Humboldt students.

To sustain our mission and ensure accessibility for all, we rely on the generous support of patrons like you. Your contribution, whether $50 or more, will not only bolster our program's success, but also grant you exclusive benefits, including early access to ticket pre-sales and more.

Your generosity, regardless of the amount, will empower us to continue transforming and enriching the cultural tapestry of Humboldt County. Thank you for considering how you can make a difference.

I eagerly anticipate welcoming you to our stages for another extraordinary season of inspiration, laughter, and wonder.

Best,

Michael Moore, Jr.
